Diversity enlivens our workplace. It jostles traditional thinking and brings rich experience to our clients and communities. Our priority is to attract, retain and promote talented individuals of all backgrounds. And our talent must reflect an array of racial, ethnic, social, economic, religious and personal backgrounds, and sexual orientations. Nixon Peabody is recognized as a diversity leader by important measures like the Corporate Equality Index. We are incredibly pleased with our 100% rating and are actively working to keep it.

While we are proud of our diversity record, we know our actions going forward are the more important story. Through continuous attention to recruitment, training, mentoring and policies, we will achieve our goal of ever greater diversity in the future.

A tradition of inclusion

Long recognized as a leader in diversity, we are proud of the recognition we have received for our diversity efforts. Recent honors include:

- 2019 Human Rights Campaign’s (HRC) Corporate Equality Index for the 13th consecutive year. Highest rating (100%) on lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) equality in corporate America. Also named to the HRC’s 2017 “Best Places to Work For (LGBT) Equality” list.

- LGBT Advocacy Award. Received from the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) of Southern California (2014).

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION AT NP:

At Nixon Peabody, diversity and inclusion are core values and important parts of our strategic plan. We believe our commitment must start at the top. Therefore, our D&I efforts are led by our firm's managing partner and CEO. We have a full-time D&I professional focused exclusively on advancing our D&I efforts who reports directly to our managing partner and Management committee.

Key elements of our diversity and inclusion initiative include:

- NP's Diversity Recruiting Initiative—For all open lateral associate positions at the firm, at least 20% of the candidates interviewed for these openings must be diverse.
- Mansfield Rule Participant—For significant leadership roles, at least 30% of the candidate pool considered for the roles must be women, attorneys of color or LGBTQ+ attorneys.

- Diversity Dialogues—A program addressing diversity-related subjects and fostering open discussions.
