Chicago, IL & New York, NY. Nixon Peabody LLP is proud to be selected among the 2025 "Best Places to Work" by both Crain's Chicago Business and Crain's New York Business.

Being recognized as a standout workplace in multiple regions speaks to Nixon Peabody's "One Firm" culture. In Nixon Peabody's Chicago and New York City offices—and across the firm—transparent leadership, clear career development pathways, and an understanding that well-being is distinctly linked to optimal performance help define the firm's cohesive and collaborative culture. This foundation enables Nixon Peabody's attorneys and professional staff colleagues to deliver exceptional client service.

"We are honored to once again be recognized by Crain's as one of the best places to work in Chicago," said David R. Brown, managing partner of Nixon Peabody's Chicago office. "Our office strives to foster a collaborative, entrepreneurial culture in Chicago and beyond, and this recognition is a testament to that hard work."

This marks the second consecutive year that Crain's Chicago Business has recognized Nixon Peabody among its "Best Places to Work." Crain's partnered with Workforce Research Group to conduct in-depth surveys of employers and their employees to achieve their rankings. The list features companies that share a commitment to fostering strong workplace cultures that attract and retain talent.

"Creating a positive impact for our clients, colleagues, and communities is at the core of who we are," said Richard Langan, managing partner of Nixon Peabody's New York City office. "We are proud of the culture we've built in our New York City office, and it's an honor to see that commitment recognized by Crain's."
