

Nixon Peabody's Joseph Lynch named to City & State New York's 'Who's Who in Affordable Housing'

February 23, 2026

CONTACT

Katelyn Donahue

Media Relations Specialist

Office +1 617.345.1148

kdonahue@nixonpeabody.com

New York, NY. Nixon Peabody LLP is proud to announce that City & State New York has named partner Joseph Lynch to the publication's 2026 "Who's Who in Affordable Housing" list.

Based in the firm's New York City office, Joe is a partner in the firm's Affordable Housing & Real Estate practice. He represents for-profit and not-for-profit developers of multifamily housing and has a particular focus on new development and preservation transactions with complex public and private financing. Joe has extensive knowledge about the New York State Private Housing Finance Law. He advises clients on all areas of affordable housing and real estate including development, construction, financing, sales, regulatory matters, various tax structures, and joint ventures.

Joe was selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America® 2026 in the field of Real Estate Law. Outside his practice, he serves on the executive committee of Citizens Housing Planning Council, as a board member of New York City Housing Partnership Development Corporation, and as a board member of Bedford Stuyvesant Restoration Corporation.

As city and state officials contend with a persistent lack of adequate housing in New York, City & State New York's inaugural "Who's Who in Affordable Housing" list recognizes the developers, advocates, activists, elected and appointed officials, and others who are part of the solution.

To learn more about the 2026 "Who's Who in Affordable Housing" honorees, click here.

